

Holy Week and Easter Sunday

Holy Thursday, March 29, 2018

- ◆ Prayer Service at 12:05 PM
- ◆ Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper at 6:30 PM
We begin our Triduum Pilgrimage as we gather in the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry to share the stories of God's faithfulness and to share a pilgrim supper. We move into the Church to continue our contemplation of the Gospel... share in the foot washing service... receive nourishment at the Table... silently contemplate the mystery of God's love as the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the Chapel. (For those unable to be here at 6:30 for the beginning of the Liturgy, the continuation of the Liturgy in the Church begins at 7:30 PM.) (Please RSVP... we need to be sure we have enough to strengthen everyone for the journey!)

featuring the St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church Choirs, Chorus Angelicus & Gaudeamus and the "Church Street" Orchestra, directed by Dr. Gabriel Löfvall
Chorus Angelicus & Gaudeamus joins forces with the choirs of St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church to present the extraordinarily comforting and humane Ein Deutsches Requiem by German composer Johannes Brahms, a masterwork distinguished by its sumptuous choral writing, ingenious orchestration, and a deep tone of gentle reassurance rather than the overwhelming sorrow of other Requiem settings: a "not-to-be-missed" event to let your soul bask in the depth of vocal splendor! www.chorusangelicus.org.

Holy Saturday, March 31, 2018

- ◆ Prayer Service at 8:00 AM
- ◆ Solemn Vigil of the Lord's Resurrection at 8:00 PM
We begin the great symbol of God's light and power as we bless our Paschal Candle, a symbol of Christ's presence. We listen to the Word of God... stories of God's loving faithfulness... words of liberation and love in a story we all know and in which we find hope. This is a remarkable night, a night of grace and mystery. Be a part of the celebration and enter into the mystery of God's loving faithfulness.
