DINNER SUPPORTS THE FRANCISCAN CENTER FOR URBAN MINISTRY...

... a non-profit 501(c)(3) tax exempt agency that serves the alienated and poor in the city of Hartford. Among the most prominent programs are:

Sandwich Program—which serves sandwiches to hungry men, women and children seven days a week, 52 weeks a year, provides client support through rental assistance, bus fare, hand-warmers, socks, gloves, hats, personal care items and much more;

Winter Pop-up Shelter—extra beds in lower level of the Center during the coldest nights when shelters are at capacity;

Adventure Saturday Mentor Program—a place for children from Hartford's North End to have fun through various cultural and social experiences;

The Wellness Center on Church Street—a provider of free health services relating to counseling, nutrition, and social work to Sandwich Program, Manna Soup Kitchen, and the Friendship Center clients.

Enjoy the fun with Master of Ceremonies Scot Haney, Weatherman and TV Personality from WFSB Channel 3.
