

IRAQI REFUGEES

Over the last decade, Cathy Breen from the New York Catholic Worker community (Dorothy Day's original community) has been clandestinely visiting refugees in and out of Iraq and has befriended many there. Because of her involvement, this courageous woman is able to get funds to those in need among the refugees quickly using Western Union. Many are in desperate straits. Some recent efforts were on behalf of Iraqis now in Denmark and in a camp on the Turkish Border. If anyone would like to help this effort, she can be reached at: Maryhouse Catholic Worker, 55 East 3rd Street, New York, NY 10003.
